

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Opportunity.

This I beheld or dreamed it in a dream There I spread a cloud of dust along a blain,
And underneath the cloud, or in it, raged
A furious battle, and men yelled and swords Shook upon swords and shields. A prince's banner Wavered, then staggered backward, hemmed by foes.
A craven hung along the battle's edge, And thought: "Had I a sword of keener edge—That blue blade that the King's son bears—but this Blunt thing—" He snapt and flung it from his hand,
And, lowering, crept away and left the field.
Then came the King's son, wounded, sore bested,
And weaponless, and saw the broken sword,
Hilt buried in the dry and trodden sand,
And ran and snatched it, and with battle shout Lifted afresh, he hewed his enemy down And saved a great cause that heroic day.

Ocean.

Bridge Whist.

Miss Kate Buford, of Richmond, was one of the guests of honor at a most enjoyable affair given by Mrs. W. N.
Raymond, at the Hotel Phoenix, Winchester, N. C. Bridge whist was played, resulting in the first prize for Mrs. Eugene Hester and the visitor's prize for Miss Buford.

These present were: Miss Kate Buford, of Richmond; Miss Jamie Buford, Misses Eugene Hester, Lindsay Paterson, Clement Manly, W. A. Whitaker, J. A. Billing, Frank Patterson, W. T.
Brown, D. N. Dalton, R. J. Reynolds, W. L. Hill, W. J. Lupton, W. A. Lemly and E. W. O'Hanlon.

Sponsor Chosen.

Miss Ophelia Percival, of Petersburg, has been chosen as sponsor for the coming reunion by the veterans of the fourth congressional district. She is a beautiful blonde and has a host of friends. She is the daughter of Mr. Joseph Percival.

Miss Templeton, of Waynesboro, is the sponsor for the Sons of the First Brigade and Miss Mary Paul Roper, daughter of Mr. Paul Roper, of Peter-burg, is the sponsor for the Sons of the late Judge Joseph Budd, as sponsor, and Miss Ashby Camp as maid.

Miss Lucy Melville is the sponsor for the Sons of Veterans from the fourth congressional district, and Miss Mary Cole is her maid of honor.

Coming Weddings.

Invitations have been received to the marriage of Miss Marian Cottrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Henry Cottrell, to Dr. William Johnson West.
The wedding will take place Tuesday, October 3rd, at five P. M., at Centenary Methodist Church. After November 15th the couple will be at home at 910 Main Street, West.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Alice Marion Dewey, of Washington, to Mr. William Gurley Cook, of Troy, N. Y. Miss Dewey is a niece of Major and Mrs. Frederick S.
Strong, of 1748 Eighteenth Street, Washington, where the wedding will be celebrated on Wednesday evening. Miss Louise Chase, of Richmond, and Miss Helen Stout, of Traverse City, Mich., will be the bridesmaids. Mr. Geo.
George Cook, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Immediately after the ceremony a reception will be given at the home of Major Strong. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will make their home in Troy, N. Y., where the groom is in business.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Miss Nellie Bolton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virginia Calhoun Bolton, of Smithfield, Va., to Mr. Ryland Owens Chapman. The ceremony will be performed at Trinity Church, Smithfield, at 12:30 o'clock on Tuesday, September 26th.

Students Reception.

Mrs. Thurston, of the Richmond School of Expression, gave a welcome reception to her pupils, both new and old, at No. 17 South Third; Misses Lily Hecker and Ollie Belle Harwood assisted Mrs.
Thurston in receiving, after which delightful refreshments were served.

Reception at Mary Baldwin's.

The parlor at the Mary Baldwin Seminary, Staunton, was the scene of a most enjoyable reception, given by the alumnae of the school, on Friday evening, Sept.
The color scheme of scarlet and green carried out beautifully in the decorations.
After the reception a banquet was served, at which Miss Sallie S. Hicks was toast mistress. Various toasts were drunk to "Miss Baldwin," "the old girls," and so on.

Among those present were: Mesdames Sallie Hicks, of Wilmington, N. C.; Lucy Henneberger, of Harrisonburg; Lily Henderson, of Aiken, S. C.; Maggie LeFlair, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Jennie Williams,

THE COHEN COMPANY

Black Spangled Robes.

These Imported Robes were never offered in Richmond at these prices before, and it will be impossible for us to duplicate them at these prices—$9, $11, $15 and $19. The Horse Show is too close to run the risk of missing this chance.

Flemish Oak Tabourets, 39c.

There never has been on sale anywhere as handsome an article as these Tabourets at the price. They are selling rapidly, which is the reason for the small price. A much more elaborate one, worth over a half more, is priced 60c.

Bonne Femme Curtains.—These Curtains are very fashionable.
We have one number made on best quality cable net, white or Arabian, a regular $5 value, for $3.50.

Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Professor Charles Eliot Norton.

BLACKMARE MAIDENS.

By WILLIAM BARNES.

William Barnes was born in Dorset, England, in 1801; died in 1886. While an engraver he took up the study of Oriental languages, and became successively curator and restorer. His poems in Dorset dialect were first published in 1834. He wrote under the name of "Dorset."

HE primrose in the sheade do blow, The cowslip in the zun, The thyme upon the downs do grow,
The clove where streamas do run;
An' where do pretty maidens grow An' blow, but where the tow'r Do rise among the bricken tuns, In Blackmare by the Stour.

If you could see their comely gait, An' pretty faces' smiles, A-trippen on so light o' waigt, An' stepper off the stile; Agwain to church, as bells do swing An' ring 'thrin the tow'r, You'd own the pretty maidens' place Is Blackmare by the Stour.

If you vom Wimbourne took your road,
To Stour or Paladore,
An' all the farmers' houses shold Their daughters at the door; You'd cry to bachelors at home—
"Here, come: 'thrin an hour You'll vind ten maidens to your mind,
In Blackmare by the Stour."

An' if you look'd 'thrin their door, To see 'em in their place, A-doin' housework up afore Their smillen mother's face, You'd cry—"Why, if a man would wive An' thrive, 'thout a dow'r, Then let en look en out a wive
In Blackmare by the Stour."

As I upen my road did pass A school-house back in May,
There out upon the beaten grass Wer n' maidens at the play;
An' as the pretty souls did twell An' smile, I cried, "The flow'r O' beauty, then, is still in bud
In Blackmare by the Stour."

Gay at the Hot.

According to the Washington Post, the Hot Springs, Va., will have a gay and distinguished company in the month of October.

A Post special from the Hot says:
Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, of New York, are on the ocean, bound for this country, and on their arrival here, with their children, will go at once to Hot Springs, Va., where Mrs. Vanderbilt will spend the month of October at the Homestead.

The Vanderbilts have been abroad the entire summer, and during their stay in Germany, have repeatedly dined and lunched with the German Emperor and Empress, and have stayed with Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia, and with the Kaiser's eldest sister, the Princess Charlotte, of Saxony, and her husband, at their respective country homes.

Mrs. Vanderbilt is not in very strong health. She has been compelled by her physicians to spend a portion of the summer at Bad Nauheim, and if she is going on her arrival here to Hot Springs, it is for the sake of taking a course of the baths there. Nor is it expected that she will take any very active part in the gayeties of the forthcoming New York season.

Mrs. Philip M. Lydie, one of the most attractive women of New York's smart set, arrived at the Virginia Hot Springs Saturday, accompanied by her sister, Miss de Acosta. They will stay indefinitely at the Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Beth Barton French left the Virginia Hot Springs and Friday evening, and will sail from New York for Europe, September 21st, to be absent for three years.

Mrs. Lander Dunn gave a tea in compliment to Mrs. French before her departure from the springs.

To Marry in Washington.

Virginia people will be interested in this announcement in the Washington Times:
Mr. and Mrs. William F. Holtzman have issued invitation for the wedding of their youngest daughter, Genevieve, to Mr.
Charles W. Hendley, of Baltimore, son of Mr. Charles M. Hendley, of this city, on October 5. The ceremony will take place here in the Pro-Cathedral Church of the Ascension. Miss Holtzman is a graduate of the Woman's College in Baltimore, class of 1904, where she received the degree of bachelor of arts. Her father is a senior member of the firm of Hendley & Frame, of the Monumental City.

There will be an interesting wedding party to attend them, including Miss Florence Holtzman, brilliant and prominent young singer, who makes her headquarters in New York, a sister of the bride-elect, as maid of honor; Miss Mary Gunsaulus, daughter of Dr. Frank Gunsaulus, of Chicago; Miss Helen Nicholson, of Altoona, Pa.; Miss Nancy Wilson, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Mabel Moss, daughter of General Hood; Miss Edna Spedden, and Miss Edith Stevens, all of Baltimore, as bridesmaids. The best men will be Mr. J. S. Burt, of Baltimore, and the ushers will be Mr. Paul Frame, Mr. William Coates, Mr. J. Halloway, Mr. Eugene Norton, all of Baltimore; Mr. John M. Handel, of Waterloo, N. Y., and Mr. Harry Wolford Chicago, of this city.

Miss Gunsaulus will arrive in Washington to-day and the other bridesmaids will come about the first of October. They will be entertained by Miss Holtzman in a gay house party, when a number of luncheons and dinners and other functions that have been planned in their honor will be given.

The engagement of Miss Gunsaulus to Mr. Hendley, of the bridal party, was announced last week.

All of the bridesmaids are fraternity sisters of the bride-elect, being members of the Alpha Phi Society, and all are graduates of the Woman's College.

A Washington Wedding.

A special to the Baltimore Sun from Washington says:

Mr. Ernest Othnell Pester Waud, of London and New York, who will be married September 26th, to Miss Olive Butler Morrison, arrived in Washington from the West to-day. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Waud, of London, will come on for the wedding, which will take place in St. John's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock P. M. Miss Morrison is entertaining her bridesmaids, Miss Ivy Hayes, her cousin, daughter of General Edward Montgomery Hayes, United States Army, and Miss Louise Pevolson, of New York, at the Marlborough. The best man will be Mr. James Sayre Hine, of New York, and the ushers Dr. John Mortimer Hayes, of Baltimore, cousin of the bride-elect, and Mr. Wilfred Hudson Osgood, of this city. Only the relatives and most intimate friends will be asked to the ceremony, and the reception will be limited to the members of the families. The decorations of the church will be sent from the old home of Miss Morrison, Morgantown, N. C., and will consist of the greens which grow there in such profusion, and fall flowers.

Whist.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Monday evening, sixteen players present. The best score of the evening was made by Miss Florence Tyler and her father, Mr. John Tyler. The club meets next Monday night, the 25th, at Mrs. Bland Spotts-wood Smith's.

Personal Mention.

Miss Margaret Walstrom, of Atlanta, is at the Richmond. Miss Walstrom was formerly a Richmond girl, and was very popular with the younger set.

N. C., is in the city on business.

Miss Augusta Daniel, who has been travelling in Denmark and Norway, has returned to the city, and is prepared to begin her classes for young ladies on the first Monday in October.

Miss Lily Snyder, who has been visiting her sister in Atlantic City and Philadelphia, has returned home.

Miss Alma Donnell, who has been the guest of Mrs. S. Dabney, in King Willam, has returned to the city.

Mrs. Virginia L. Morrow, of Newark, N. J., is visiting Mrs. R. L. Woody, of 116 South Fifth street.

Miss Rose Satterfield left Monday for Hollins, where she expects to graduate this year.

The friends of Mrs. Charles Franklin Snow will be glad to learn that she is slightly improved to-day, after a painful illness caused by an abscess in the ear.
Dr. W. T. Oppenheimer is her physician.

Miss Annie McPhail has returned to the city after having spent two years with her aunt, Mrs. Bettie Campbell, of Snow Hill, Md.

FAIRMOUNT NEWS

Mrs. Charles Harbin and three children, of Little City, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Willie Dillard, of No. 120 Twenty-third Street.
Little Miss Tina Kennedy, of Norfolk, is visiting in the home of Mrs. Willie Dillard.
Mrs. Crowder is visiting her daughter in Newport News.

Miss Della Crowder, who has been visiting in Newport News, has returned home.
Mr. Howard Crowder, recently visited friends in Newport News.

Miss Mary Gray will resume her music class on September 25th.
Miss Blanche Vale has returned from a visit to relatives in New York City.

B. J. Haynes, of Buchanan county, has returned home.

"THERE'S A REASON."

That's All Right, But What Is It?
A lady teacher in South Dakota says:
"I was compelled to give up teaching for nearly four years because of what the physicians called 'nervous dyspepsia.' Nor was I of any use in the household economy. I was in many respects a wreck."

"I had numerous physicians, one after another, and took many different kinds of medicine, but they did me no good."
"Finally, five years ago I began to use Grape-Nuts food. I grew stronger, and in a very short time on the new diet I was able to resume my work and am still teaching. I no longer use drugs of any kind, my dyspepsia has disappeared, and I am a hearty woman—thanks to Grape-Nuts."

Grain, given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. From the stomach and bowels. They become too weak to handle the fried meat, eggs, bacon, coffee, and white bread; so, partly digested, they become and cause all sorts of trouble, which will become chronic if not cured. Then the nerves and brain grow weary, for they are deprived of the rebuilding elements the food must furnish to replace the soft gray matter of nerve centers and brain which is partly used up each day.

Now comes the mission of Grape-Nuts to supply the brain and nerves with the best of wheat and barley. This famous food contains natural phosphate of potash with albumen, which combines with matter in the body and makes the gray matter quickly and surely. Then when nerves feel the power of new made and properly made cells, the strength returns to stomach as well as other parts.
"There's a reason." Any one can prove it.
See the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each package.

LADY WHO IT IS SAID WILL MARRY JAMES HAZEN HYDE

MISS CHARLOTTE WARREN.

According to a report from Newport, she is engaged to marry James H. Hyde, former vice-president of the Equitable Life Insurance Company. Miss Warren is now on her way to Paris, where, it is said, the ceremony will be performed.

turned home after visiting relatives in Fairmount and vicinity.

Mrs. Manie Miller, who has been spending the past three months with her brother, Wherry Calhoun, in Nottingham county, and his sister, Mrs. William Calhoun, in Cresco, Va., has returned to Fairmount, and is the guest of friends.

Miss Mary Powell, of Buckingham county, who was the guest of Mrs. Benjamin Adams recently, has left for Norfolk to resume charge of her school.

Miss May Carr has returned home after a delightful visit to friends and relatives in Spotsylvania county.

Miss Mary Haynes has been quite sick for the past week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Haynes, in Cresco, Va.

Miss Dora Atkins has returned from a visit to her father, Mr. J. H. Atkins, in Hampshire county, and is the guest of friends.

Little Miss Grace Miller has returned from a visit to her relatives in Cresco, Va., and is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Atkins, in Hampshire county.

Mrs. Dora Powell, of Buckingham county, who stopped over with Mrs. T. B. Hagley for a few days while en route to Maryland to teach school the coming season, has left for that school the coming season.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. M. Whitlock and Master Joan Whitlock, of Spotsylvania county, are the guests of Mrs. M. M. Carr, mother of Mrs.
Whitlock.

to his home for the past ten days with rheumatism, is improving slowly.

Miss Lizzie Roberson has opened her school on Venable Street for the coming season with a large number of scholars. Many Fairmount children will be among her pupils.

Miss Florence Martin has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Hanover county.

Mrs. Fawn Carr has returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. H. Carr, who has been staying at her home.

Two new scholars were registered. It has been his books the largest number of pupils that has ever been enrolled before. Miss Dickinson, the principal, with her able assistants, feel greatly encouraged by the interest both parents and pupils have expressed in regard to the work of the present session, and they hope to make this the banner year in the school's history.

The entertainment, which was given at the Town Hall by the Federal Young Men's Christian Association last night, was a decided success, and made a lasting impression on Fairmount folk. The many funny sayings and doings kept the crowd in a roar of laughter the entire evening.

Misses Marie Nuckolls, Rana Ford and Inez Hobson entertained quite a number of their young friends at a "Piano Party" a few over-
